

Vocabulary Ninja

KEY STAGE 2

WORD OF THE DAY

PACK

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

Vocabulary Ninja

vocabularyninja.wordpress.com

@VocabularyNinja

@VocabularyNinjaLive

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

Firstly, thank you for being a part of the vocabulary revolution! ViVa!! Together we can have a huge impact on understanding and application of vocabulary! Vocabulary Ninja is was born out of a desire to improve general outcomes for pupils within a classroom, stumbling upon vocabulary as a huge barrier. Just as times tables are a pre-requisite to most mathematical investigations, vocabulary is to reading and writing. Without an in-depth understanding, pupils will always have barriers in learning and in life!

Well, you have passed the first test grasshopper! And demonstrated your worth!! I must reward your endeavour with this wonderful 140 page VocabularyNinja Word of the Day Resource Pack!

Remember, the true value of being a VocabularyNinja lies in time given, it is a gift. Time must be provided for discussion, demonstration, explanation, play, sharing, editing, rehearsal and celebration. Simply showing pupils these words is not enough. Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding.

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : relinquish (verb)

Definition : voluntarily cease claim or give up control.

He relinquished his grip of his favourite book.

Synonym : renounce, give up, abandon.

Antonym : retain, continue.

Challenge : Use WOD with -ed or -ing suffix in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : plethora (noun)

Definition : an abundance or excess.

There was/were a plethora of stores to buy goods from.

Synonym : excess, deluge, plenty.

Antonym : scarcity, few.

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : devoured (verb)

Definition : eat with speed, hungrily.

The book was finished, she had devoured it.

Synonym : chomped, gobbled, destroy.

Antonym : nibble, build.

Challenge : Use WOD to write a statement.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : dwindle (verb)

Definition : reduce gradually in size, amount or strength.

Dwindling, the king's power was not what it once was.

Synonym : decrease, reduce, wane.

Antonym : increase, flourish.

Challenge : Use WOD or with -ed or -ing opener / fronted adverbial.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : warrior (noun)

Definition : brave or experienced soldier.

There stood a warrior, tall, strong and effortlessly brave.

Synonym : fighter or soldier.

Antonym : civilian.

Challenge : Post-modify WOD in a sentence..

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : simultaneously (adv.)

Definition : at the same time.

The soldiers simultaneously raised their berets to salute the major.

Synonym : together .

Antonym : singly.

Challenge : Use WOD as a fronted adverbial.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : impede ing / ed (verb.)

Definition : delay or prevent by obstructing.

Pupil progress may be impeded by lack of exposure to vocabulary.

Synonym : hinder .

Antonym : facilitate.

Challenge : Use WOD with -ing or -ed suffix.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : revenge (verb / noun)

Definition : an act in return of injury or offence.

His final act of revenge was desperate and reckless.

Synonym : retaliate, vengeance.

Antonym : forgive.

Challenge : Use WOD to describe the weather's actions.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

(verb / noun)

Word of the Day : smuggle / smuggler

Definition : move something secretly, possibly illegally. Someone who carries out this act.

The pupil smuggled sweets into the playground.

Synonym : sneak.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

Word of the Day

Word of the Day

(verb)

Word of the Day : imagined / imagination

Definition : a mental image or picture in your head.

The world the child had imagined was unlike anything he had seen before.

Synonym : picture, visualise.

Antonym : doubt.

Challenge : Describe what a character imagines.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : jubilant (adj.)

Definition : a feeling of great happiness.

Easter was over, the teachers were feeling jubilant, they were ready to teach.

Synonym : triumphant.

Antonym : despondent.

Challenge : Use WOD in an embedded clause.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : flail (verb)

Definition : wave or swing wildly.

The children were flailing their arms in the air, like they just didn't care.

Synonym : wave, swing.

Antonym : still.

Challenge : Use WOD in direct speech.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : hypnotism (noun)

Definition : the practice of hypnotising people.

Hypnotism was being used to control the unruly children.

Synonym : hypnosis.

Antonym :

Challenge : Find WOD in our KS2 book of the day.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : profound (adj.)

Definition : very great or intense state.

The doctor let out a profound sigh of relief.

So profound was her grief, she could not fight back the tears.

Synonym : heartfelt, intense, extreme.

Antonym : superficial, mild.

Challenge : Post a picture of little ninjas sentences using WOD.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : marathon (noun.)

Definition : 26 mile race or a long task.

Easter revision was a marathon!

Thousands of people ran the London marathon.

Synonym :

Antonym :

Challenge : Write a sentence using parenthesis.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : germinate (verb)

Definition : begin to grow and put out shoots.

Germination was a slow process. The seeds began to germinate.*

Synonym : develop, grow.

Antonym : die.

Challenge : Plant some seeds and watch for a week.
Then write a sentence about it.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : crippled (adj.)

Definition : unable to walk or move properly / severely damaged.

The computer was crippled by a notorious virus.

Synonym : broken, disabled.

Antonym : boost.

Challenge : Use WOD with a modal verb in a sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : serious (adj.)

Definition : acting or speaking sincerely, meaning it.

Correct PE kit was a serious matter.

Synonym : important, significant.

Antonym : joking

Challenge : Write a serious sentence...seriously.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : deliberate (adj.)

Definition : done consciously and with intent.

His poor behaviour was deliberate.

Deliberately, the hungry tiger waited, motionless in the long grass.*

Synonym : intentional, calculated.

Antonym : accidental.

Challenge : Use WOD in a fronted adverbial.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS1 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : rise / rose (verb)

Definition : move from lower position to higher.

The knight rose slowly from being knighted!

Synonym : stand up.

Antonym : lower.

Challenge : Use WOD as in past tense.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS1 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : recycle (verb)

Definition : convert waste into a reusable material.

It is important to recycle your plastic!

Synonym : reuse

Antonym : waste.

Challenge : Use WOD in a question.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS1 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : create (verb)

Definition : to make or bring something into existence.

How could the children create such a mess?

Synonym : generate, produce.

Antonym : destroy.

Challenge : Use WOD in a question.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : contemplate (verb)

Definition : think about or look at for a long time.
Think deeply.

The manager had to contemplate how the game had played out.

Synonym : observe, scrutinise .

Antonym : ignore.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : participate (verb)

Definition : to take part in.

Participation levels were high on sports day.

"I wish to participate," bellowed Timmy.

Synonym : take part, involve.

Antonym : prevent, ignore.

Challenge : Use WOD in a fronted adverbial.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS1 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : unfold (verb)

Definition : spread out or gradually develop.

The story unfolded word by word.

Vocabulary Ninja must carefully unfold his belt.

Synonym : flatten, develop.

Antonym : fold.

Challenge : Use WOD to describe.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : epiphany (noun)

Definition : a moment of sudden revelation.

The secondary teacher had an epiphany...primary rocked!

Liam had an epiphany whilst learning about subjunctive mood.

Synonym : awakening.

Challenge : Use WOD in an exclamation sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : occasionally (adverb)

Definition : at irregular intervals.

Occasionally, I like to boogie!

My aunt and uncle visit occasionally.

Synonym : infrequently.

Antonym : often, frequently.

Challenge : Use WOD in an exclamation as affronted adverbial.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : belonged (verb)

Definition : the property of.

The fidget spinner belonged to the pupil.

"Fidget spinners don't belong here," said the teacher.

Synonym : own / owned / owns / owned

Antonym : alienate.

Challenge : Use WOD in simple sentence..

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : tiptoed (verb)

Definition : walk quietly or carefully avoid.

Tiptoeing carefully, he crept towards the biscuits.*

He tiptoed away with a custard cream.

Synonym : snuck, sneak, avoid.

Challenge : Use WOD in simple sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : anxious (adjective)

Definition : feeling or showing worry.

The ninja is never anxious.

SATs had arrived, she was no longer anxious, she was ready.

Synonym : worried, nervous.

Challenge : Use WOD in an embedded clause.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : disguised (verb)

Definition : change appearance to hide.

The disguise was terrible.

He could not disguise his anger.

Synonym : impersonate.

Antonym : reveal.

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : poisoned (verb)

Definition : being administered poison.

The poison was rather deadly.

The ninja stealthily poisoned the target.

Synonym :

Antonym : cured.

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : indignant (adjective)

Definition : angered at being treated unfairly.

Indignant and exhausted, he gave up.

Synonym : aggrieved

Antonym : content.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : translucent (adj)

Definition : allowing some light to pass through.

Translucent wings spread as wide as the cavern.*

Synonym : transparent.

Antonym : opaque.

Challenge : Use WOD in science lessons.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : illustrate (verb)

Definition : draw pictures to bring a story to life.

The teacher illustrated his point using the movie.

Synonym : decorate.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : devour (verb)

Definition : eat hungrily or quickly

The ant-eater greedily devoured the juicy ants

Synonym : consume.

Antonym : savour.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : plunder (verb / noun)

Definition : steal goods using force - time of war.

The hungry teacher plundered the pupil's packed lunches in search of salt and vinegar crisps.

Synonym : pillage.

Antonym : retrieve.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : havoc (verb/noun)

Definition : widespread destruction / to lay waste.

The hurricane had caused havoc in Cuba.

Synonym : devastation.

Antonym : peace.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : pinnacle (noun/verb)

Definition : the most successful point / peak of a high point.

Winning the cup was the pinnacle of his career.

Synonym : peak.

Antonym : trough.

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : restrain (verb)

Definition : prevent someone from doing something.

The pupils couldn't restrain their excitement.

Synonym : prevent.

Antonym : provoke.

Challenge : Use WOD in a relative clause.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : capitulate (verb)

Definition : to stop fighting an enemy and admit defeat.

The army was close to capitulating after the siege.

Synonym : surrender.

Antonym : resist.

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : adopt (verb)

Definition : choose to take-up or follow an action or idea /raise a child as your own.

The sports team adopted black arm bands as a show of respect.

Synonym : embrace.

Antonym : abandon.

Challenge : Use WOD with a suffix -ing -tion.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : solidarity (noun)

Definition : unity of feelings or actions, coming together over common interest.

There was a great feeling of solidarity between the soldiers.

Synonym : unity.

Antonym : individuality.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : panorama (noun)

Definition : an unbroken view of a region /
wide view.

The school hall offered a panorama of children's writing on the walls.

Synonym : landscape.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : codswallop (noun)

Definition : another word for nonsense

The teacher's lesson was pure codswallop!

Synonym : nonsense.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : tedious (adjective)

Definition : too long, slow, or dull; tiresome.

The school holiday quickly became tedious and boring.

Synonym : monotonous.

Antonym : exciting.

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : immaculate (adjective)

Definition : perfectly clean, neat or tidy.

The blue dress was immaculate, without flaws, perfection.

Synonym : spotless.

Antonym : grubby.

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

(noun)

(adjective)

Word of the Day : euphoria / euphoric

Definition : feeling of extreme happiness.

Euphoria spread around the school like a wild fire! The year 5 pupils had won the national poetry competition!*

Synonym : delight.

Antonym : misery.

Challenge : Use WOD in a statement.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : disclose (verb)

Definition : make secret information known.

She disclosed her secret to dividing fractions!

Synonym : reveal.

Antonym : conceal.

Challenge : Use WOD in a simple sentence .

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : undercover (adjective)

Definition : secret work.

The police were involved in an undercover operation.

Synonym : secret.

Antonym : open.

Challenge : Use WOD in a simple sentence .

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : elope (verb)

Definition : run away secretly in order to get married.

Romeo and Juliet planned to elope at midnight, to escape their quarrelling families.

Synonym : abscond.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence .

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : premature (adj)

Definition : occurring or done before the usual or proper time.

Pupils ran prematurely into the school, the bell hadn't yet rang.

Synonym : untimely.

Antonym : overdue.

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence .

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : brunch (noun)

Definition : a meal that is eaten late morning, sometime between breakfast and lunch.

The teachers scoffed brunch, whilst the children played on the yard.

Synonym :

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence .

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : dehydrated (verb)

Definition : cause a person's body to lose
a large amount of water.

After the marathon, the runner was dehydrated.

Synonym : dehumidify .

Antonym : hydrate.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : alleviate (verb)

Definition : to make less severe.

The heat of the sun was alleviated by the juicy rocket lolly!

Synonym : reduce .

Antonym : aggravate.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : gullible (adj)

Definition : easily persuaded to believe something.

Gullible Mr Dyson was convinced that pigs could fly!*

Synonym : naive .

Antonym : cynical.

Challenge : Use WOD as an adverb.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : tragedy / tragic (noun / adj)

Definition : something that has caused extreme sorrow.

The circumstances in which the train crashed were tragic.

Synonym : catastrophe / catastrophic .

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a simple sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : bamboozle (Verb)

Definition : cheat or fool

The year 5 pupil bamboozled the school with her magic tricks during the talent show.

Synonym : cheat / fool .

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in past participle.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : elite (noun/adj)

Definition : a group of people with power / the best.

The elite soldiers were guarding the palace perimeter.

Synonym : creme de la creme.

Antonym : dregs

Challenge : Use WOD in a simple sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : corrupt (adj / verb)

Definition : having or showing a willingness to act dishonest for money or gain.

The final was ruined by the corrupt officials.

You could smell the corruption.

Synonym : dishonest.

Antonym : conform

Challenge : Use WOD in an embedded clause.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : vigour (noun)

Definition : physical strength or good health / energetic or enthusiasm.

The cartwheels were a sign of vigour and health.

The warm-up was vigorous!

Synonym : robust.

Antonym : lethargic.

Challenge : Use WOD in an embedded clause.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : penultimate (adj)

Definition : last but one, second last.

Lewis Hamilton began the penultimate lap in first place!

Synonym :

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in an relative clause.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : applause (noun)

Definition : approval or praise expressed by clapping.

The applause from the crowd was deafening.

Synonym : cheer.

Antonym : boo.

Challenge : Use WOD in compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : rebuff (noun / verb)

Definition : reject in an ungracious or abrupt manner.

The head teacher rebuffed the children's requests for an extra break time..

Synonym : reject.

Antonym : welcome.

Challenge : Use WOD in complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : cripple (verb)

Definition : cause someone to become unable to walk / cause severe problem.

The pirates quickly crippled the ship's engine.

Synonym : disable.

Antonym : boost.

Challenge : Use WOD as a past participle.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : contemplate (verb)

Definition : to think about something in a deep way, something important.

The school council had to contemplate whether or not to buy new bins.

Synonym : think, deliberate.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : barbecue (noun / verb)

Definition : food cooked on an open fire or coals, usually meat.

We must barbecue the sausages perfectly, so that we do not get food poisoning.

Synonym : cook.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a simple sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : ecstasy (noun)

Definition : an overwhelming feeling of great happiness of joyful excitement.

There was a look of ecstasy on the pupil's face, as he saw an elephant for the first time.

Synonym : euphoria.

Antonym : misery.

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : propaganda (noun)

Definition : information that is misleading to promote point of view.

Don't believe the hype, it's all propaganda!

Synonym : publicity.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a complex sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : malleable (adj)

Definition : easily hammered into a new shape / easily influenced.

The teacher believed her new class would be extremely malleable and would meet her expectations.

Synonym : workable.

Antonym : hard.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : temporary (adj/noun)

Definition : lasting for a limited period of time/
a person who is employed on a temporary basis.

The pressure of SATs was only temporary...or was it?

Synonym : fleeting.

Antonym : permanent.

Challenge : Use WOD in a compound sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : troglodyte (noun)

Definition : someone who lives in a cave /
someone who is deliberately ignorant or old-fashioned.

*The children thought the teacher was a total troglodyte,
all he ever used was worksheets and the blackboard.*

Synonym :

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : nauseating (adjective)

Definition : making someone feel sick or nauseous .

The stench coming from the farmyard was nauseating.

Synonym : sickening.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : vulnerable (adjective)

Definition : exposed to the possibility of being attacked or harmed.

The fifth platoon were vulnerable after the enemies latest attack.

Synonym : endangered.

Antonym : well protected.

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'

KS2 Word of the Day

Word of the Day

Word of the Day : bewitch (verb)

Definition : to attract or interest them a lot, so that you have power over them.

The young knight was bewitched by the beauty of the princess. He would do anything she asked.

Synonym : charm.

Antonym :

Challenge : Use WOD in a multi-clause sentence.

@VocabularyNinja

'Words unlock the doors to a world of understanding...'