

Spellings for the week commencing 30th March 2020

These are your weekly spellings to practice. Some suggested ways to help you practice these are: Use the fun methods we looked at last week; order the words alphabetically as you learn them or throw a ball with a partner or against a wall and each time they throw the ball say the next letter of the word until they have spelt the whole word.

Challenge yourself to learn as many of these words as possible this week, if you can complete all 12 spellings then you are a spelling master. If you can correctly spell these, try to write a selection of these in sentences.
