

Story starter!

On Christmas Eve they came...

She had first seen them through the sitting room window, as she peeked out cautiously through a gap in the curtains.

Opening the front door, the little girl took a sharp intake of breath as thousands upon thousands of snowmen stared at her. Many of the small, white figures carried signs, written in different languages.

They must have travelled from all over the world to be here, on this special night of the year. But...Why had they come? What did they want? Why had they chosen her?

Can you continue the story about the mysterious gathering of snowmen?
Can you answer some of the little girl's questions?

Question time!

- ▶ If snowmen could talk, what would they say?
- ▶ If snowmen ruled the world, what changes would you see?
- ▶ When do you think the first snowman was built?
- ▶ If you make a snowman out of a material other than snow, is he a snowman?

Perfect picture!

Can you draw the perfect snowman? You could write down what he is made of and how you have made him.

Sentence challenge!

Insert the missing inverted commas in the sentence below.

- ▶ This is extremely odd, said the girl. Why are you standing on my doorstep?

Can you use inverted commas in your story today to show when someone is speaking?

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help?

- ▶ The faces of the snowmen looked up at her.
- ▶ We need your help they said.

