

English Home-learning

Task 1

This term, we will be reading 'Gregory Cool' by Caroline Binch. Look at the picture of Gregory Cool on the front cover. Can you write a character description about him? Try to include descriptive phrases about his personality and appearance and think about where he might live what he might enjoy doing.

Task 2

Can you also write a setting description using this second picture from the book? When writing your setting description, think about your 5 senses, the weather and the time of day.
