L.Q. When is the 's' sound spelt 'c'?

If the word has a /s/ followed by 'e', 'i' or 'y', then it could be spelt 'c'.

There is no way of telling whether it is an 's' or a 'c', we have to look at the word and see if it looks right.

Look at the list of words with some spelt incorrectly, go through it and choose the right spellings.

Practice Spellings:

Use these words in your own sentences to practice them.

ice, space, city, cycle, circle, race, soon, celery, settle, supper.

English

English will be quite difficult to follow this week as we are using the book, 'Lila and the secret of rain'. At school we have covered up the words and the children are using their inference skills to say what they think is happening in the story.

You could do this at home if you have a book with no words.

If not have a look at the picture below and complete the work that follows.

Task 1: What do you think is happening in the picture?

Why do you think this?

Task 2: Write a description of the character you can see in the picture. remember to use subordinating and coordinating conjunctions to extend your sentences and well as expanded noun phrases to make your writing more interesting.

Task 3: Write a description of the picture, use all of the above.

Task 4: Write a story about what you think is happening in the picture.

Remember to have a clear beginning, where you will use a character and setting description

Middle - make the story exciting, what is the dilemma? How will it be resolved?

Ending - what happens in the end?
